Peak into the Program

Through Open Spaces and Skill-Sharing sessions, participants are invited to explore their own creative work and engage with the ideas of others—across artistic and cultural boundaries.

In Discussion Rounds and Moving ME Workshops, we reflect on the different identities we carry within us. Who am I, really? What does “home” mean?

Team-Building activities create a playful and supportive group dynamic, encouraging curiosity, trust and spontaneity.

“Re-Creative Islands” offer space to slow down and recharge—whether in the surrounding forest, by the nearby lake, or exploring the city of Novi Sad. This time can be shaped freely, socially, or creatively.

IN A NUTSHELL

ConneXt brings young people together to explore home, belonging, and identity—through art and lived experience.

Across languages, cultures, and personal realities, we ask: When am I at home? Who defines who I am? Through theatre, movement, and storytelling, participants turn their experiences into performance—opening new perspectives and reimagining belonging beyond clichés.
